No. 46

(House Joint Resolution 26)

House Joint Resolution to request the Governor of Maryland to appoint a Committee to review suggested changes in the game and fish laws.

WHEREAS, At each General Assembly, bills are presented by individual members proposing various changes in the game and fish licensing laws; and

WHEREAS, Two proposals which have been submitted in the past which deserve consideration are (1) an exemption from the fresh water fishing laws to permit senior citizens of the State to fish without obtaining a license, and (2) an exemption from the hunting laws to allow senior citizens of the State to hunt without obtaining a license; and

WHEREAS, At the same time that these two proposals are considered, the Department of Game and Fish suggests that all of the laws relating to game birds, game animals and game and fresh water fish ought to be reviewed for modernization and recodification together with the method of funding of the activities and functions of the Department; and

WHEREAS, For these purposes, it is desirable that a Gubernatorial Commission be appointed; now, therefore, be it
