Honorable Marvin Mandel
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Section 17 of Article II of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed today House Bill 22 and am returning it to you.

The State Retirement Systems now provide accidental disability retirement benefits for an employee disabled during job-related activities if he is under 60 years of age. If the employee is 60 years old or older, he is not entitled to the benefits, but may retire under standard retirement provisions. This bill would remove the age limitation on accidental disability retirement.

Almost certainly, the original reasoning behind the age limitation in the present law involved the view that elderly persons are generally more accident-prone and subject to total disability. I do not subscribe
