

authority to the American Red Cross upon request for all disabled and convalescent patients, regardless of age, under their care and supervision as a group for recreational purposes, to fish without securing a fishing license.

(i) Reciprocal Fishing license.—Residents of the State of Virginia and West Virginia who possess fishing licenses valid in their respective states may fish by angling only in the waters of the Potomac River above a point where the tide ebbs and flows without obtaining licenses to do so, but such fishing shall be confined to the river proper, not including its tributaries; Provided that the states of Virginia and West Virginia shall first enter into a reciprocal agreement with the Game and Inland Fish Commission and approved by the Attorney General extending a like privilege of fishing on the Potomac River from the Virginia and West Virginia banks of said river to licensed residents of Maryland, without requiring said residents to obtain Virginia or West Virginia fishing licenses.

(j) Residents of the State of Pennsylvania who possess fishing licenses valid in that state may fish by angling only in the waters of the Conowingo and Youghiogheny Reservoirs without obtaining a license to do so, but such fishing shall be confined to the reservoirs proper, not including their tributaries; Provided that the State of Pennsylvania shall first enter into a reciprocal agreement with the Game and Inland Fish Commission and approved by the Attorney General extending a like privilege of fishing on that portion of the Conowingo and Youghiogheny reservoirs lying within the boundaries of the State of Pennsylvania to licensed residents of Maryland without requiring said residents to obtain Pennsylvania fishing licenses.

220. Penalty.

Any resident of the State of Maryland found guilty of fishing or fishing for any species of fish in non-tidal waters without having first procured an angler's license and having said license [, button, or badge] displayed on person at time of said fishing, or for refusing to show said license [, button, or badge] when demanded by the Director or any [game warden] Wildlife Officer, sheriff, constable, or other officer or [person] landowner or his representative or failing to display license on person where it is visible at all times, or violating any of the other provisions of this subheading, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace or Court of Justice of the county or city where the offense was committed shall be fined Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each and every offense and shall stand committed to the county jail or the Baltimore City Jail until such fine and costs are paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed ten (10) days for each offense. Any non-resident of the State of Maryland found guilty of fishing or fishing for any species of fish in non-tidal waters without having first procured an angler's license and having said license [, button, or badge] displayed on person at time of said fishing, or for refusing to show said license [, button or badge] when demanded by the Director or any [game warden] Wildlife Officer, sheriff, constable, or other officer or [person] landowner or his representative, or failing to display license on person where it is visible at all times, or violating any of the other provisions of this sub-heading, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be-