

the motion to refer it to the committee already raised on that subject;

Ordered, That the memorial of Reverdy Johnson, this day presented to the House of Delegates, be referred to the select committee, in relation to the Bank of Maryland, General Insurance Office, and The Susquehanna Bank, formerly the Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, insolvent institutions, but that said reference shall not imply any instructions to the course which said committee is to pursue in the investigation of the affairs of said bank;

Which was read.

Mr. Risteau proposed the following as an amendment to the said substitute, "And that the representatives or near friends of Evan Poultney, dec. have the like privilege to present to the said committee any other memorial and papers, which in their opinion, equal justice to the memory and character of the deceased, may seem to require;

Mr. Le Grand then moved to lay the original proposition, together with the amendments on the table;

On motion of Mr. Graves,
