

to the constitution and laws of this State, and concur therein. We have appointed Messrs. Forman and Willis to join the gentlemen named by your honorable body.

By order,

George G. Brewer, Clerk.

On motion of Mr. Jones, of Somerset,

The house took up for consideration the unfavorable report of the committee on divorces, upon the petition of Henry Elliott, praying to be divorced from his wife, Celeste Elliott, and the substitute offered therefor by Mr. Frazier, being a bill, entitled an act to divorce Henry Elliott, of the city of Baltimore, from his wife Celeste Elliott; The said report and substitute were then read the second time.

The Speaker announced that the hour had arrived for taking up the order of the day;

Mr. Jones, of Somerset, moved that the order of the day be postponed;

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question then recurred upon accepting the substitute;

Mr. Bowie called for the previous question, that is shall the main question be now put? and it was Determined in the negative.

The question again recurred upon accepting the substitute, for the unfavorable report of the committee on divorces.

Mr. Heard moved that the report and substitute be referred to the consideration of the next General Assembly of Maryland.

Mr. Heard called for the previous question, which being demanded by a majority of the members present, the said previous question was put, that is, shall the main question be now put? and it was

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, will the house refer said report and substitute to the consideration of the next General Assembly?

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Gaither then moved that the substitute be rejected.

Mr. Gaither called for the previous question, which being demanded by a majority of the members present, the said previous question was put, that is, shall the main question be now put? and it was

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, will the house reject the substitute?

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question then recurred upon concurring in the unfavorable report of the committee.

Mr. Le Grand called for the previous question, which being demanded by a majority of the members present, the said previous question was put, that is, shall the main question be now put? and it was

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, will the house concur in the unfavorable report of the committee on divorces?

Resolved in the affirmative.