So the House suspended the rule, and took up for consideration the said preamble and resolutions :

The said preamble and resolutions were then read the second time ;

Mr. Bowie moved to amend said resolution by striking out the word "requested," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "instructed ;"

Mr. Johnson, of A. A., called for the previous question, which being demanded by a majority of the members present, the said previous question was put, that is, shall the main question be now put, and

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, on the amendment offered by Mr. Bowie, to strike out the word "requested," and insert "instructed," and Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Biser,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:
