So the amendment was rejected.

The Speaker announced that the hour had arrived for taking up the order of the day,

Mr. Archer moved to postpone the order of the day ;

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Johnson, of Frederick, then moved that the House proceed to the consideration of the order of the day,

Which motion he waived for the purpose of enabling Mr. Morsell, to offer the following message :

*By the House of Delegates,
March 7th, 1845.*

Gentlemen of the Senate :

Your message of the 5th instant, proposing to go into an election of Bank Directors on the part of the State, in reply to the message of this House, of the 25th ultin.o, was received by us last night. The time proposed by your honorable body, having expired before your message was received, we now propose with the concurrence of your honorable body to go into said election, to-morrow, at twelve o'clock.

By order,

George G. Brewer, C k.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.
