

CORRECTION.

The latter portion of an order submitted by Mr. Williams of Baltimore city, commencing on page 476, having been omitted, we here insert it in full for the purpose of making the correction.

Mr. Williams, of Baltimore city, submitted the following order:

Ordered, That the order of proceeding in this House shall on this day be as follows:

1. All memorials and petitions shall be laid, without notice to the House, on the clerk's table, who shall note them on the journal, and state that they are, respectively, referred to the consideration of the next General Assembly.

2. No leaves to bring in bills or motions to introduce resolutions shall be granted, without the unanimous consent of the members present.

3. Reports from all committees shall be received and placed at the bottom of the calender of bills, &c., in the order in which they are presented, except revenue reports.

4. After all reports are presented, the several committees shall be, and hereby are discharged from the further consideration of all subjects not reported on by them, respectively.

5. Bills, resolutions and reports shall be called in the following order:

1st. Revenue bills, resolutions and reports received from the committee on Ways and Means.

2nd. Special orders of the day according to their dates, as such.

3rd. All other bills, resolutions, reports and orders, lying on the clerk's table, in the order of time in which they were introduced, or received from the Senate;

6. There shall be no debate on any bill, resolution, report or order, or amendment. Should a member first make an enquiry, another member may answer such enquiry, confining himself strictly to an explanation.

7. All legislative action of this House shall cease at 3 o'clock P. M., except on bills, resolutions and amendments received from the senate. And bills, &c., not recorded on the callender shall be and hereby are referred to the consideration of the next General Assembly.

8. When this House adjourns, it shall stand adjourned to 5 o'clock, in order to send and receive messages to and from the senate and the Governor, and to close the session.
