

an annual salary of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars. The person or persons contained in said list shall be of high standing for their expert knowledge and interest in the Orthodox Hebrew rules, regulations and requirements pertaining to the sale, manufacture, distribution and preparation of kosher meat, meat products, food, food products and beverages and such person or persons shall not be directly or indirectly financially interested in the manufacture, sale, preparation or distribution of any such products. It shall be the duty of said inspector to inspect the premises, books and records, equipment and products of all slaughter houses, abattoirs, butchers, butcher shops, hotels, restaurants, lunch rooms, inns, boarding houses, caterers, grocers and all other places or establishments of every description wherein persons engaged in the manufacture, preparation, sale, service or distribution of food (as described in this section) in any manner represent the same to be kosher, or represent that such food has been prepared under, or is made of a product or products sanctioned by the Orthodox Hebrew religious rules or requirements and dietary laws either by direct or indirect statement, orally or in writing. It shall be the duty of said inspector to report to the state's attorney of Baltimore County, for appropriate legal action, any person, firm or corporation found by him to be violating the terms and provisions of this section.

19-10. Parades ; permit required.

It shall be unlawful for any organization or persons to parade through the highways of Baltimore County without first having obtained a permit from the [Director] Chief of [public safety] Police. All applications for such a permit shall be filed at least seven days prior to the date of any proposed parade upon forms to be supplied by the [Director] Chief of [public safety] Police. The [Director] Chief of [public safety] Police may require the applicant to state the highways through which, and the hours within which, the parade is to pass and such other information as he may prescribe. It shall be the duty of the [Director] Chief of [public safety] Police to consider such applications promptly and to grant or refuse a permit within two weeks after application or at least three days prior to the date on which it is desired to hold any such parade, whichever event shall first occur. All such permits shall be issued free of any charge. Any person or persons holding a parade or participating therein for which a permit has not been issued shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

19-11. Wearing fire or police department uniforms, insignia.

It shall be unlawful for any person, unless duly authorized by the [Director of public safety] Chief of the Respective Fire or Police Department of Baltimore County, to wear the uniform or any distinctive part of such uniform, or the badge or insignia of any member of the Police [Bureau] Department or Fire [Bureau] Department of Baltimore County or to represent himself to be a member of either of said [bureaus] departments, or in any manner to interfere with, mutilate or damage any apparatus, property, wires or equipment or appurtenances of the Fire [Bureau] Department or Police [Bureau] Department or in any way interfere with any member of said [Bureaus] Departments in the discharge of his duties. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term of not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the Court.