No. 59

(House Joint Resolution 107)

House Joint Resolution requesting the Honorable Marvin Mandel, Governor of the State of Maryland, to contact the Governors of Delaware and Virginia for purposes of establishing a joint commission to study the conditions of employment, availability of labor, and any other employment problems connected with the Delmarva Poultry Industry.

WHEREAS, the Delmarva Poultry Industry operates in part of each of three states, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia; and is an important and vital part of the economy of these states; and

WHEREAS, the companies that constitute said industry are confronted with the problem of trying to find a way to keep an adequate work force in the plants, which problem is chronic and is a matter of grave concern to the industry, the community, and to people who are elected to represent them in public office; and

WHEREAS, in Maryland the Department of Employment Security is the Department charged with assisting employers in finding an adequate labor force and in helping workers find full employment; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Employment Security is requested to work in close proximity with other State agencies that could possibly furnish some employment to the Industry; and
