

(1-5) Any judge covered by Plan B provided for in this subsection, who is not elected to a full term following his initial appointment, shall be paid the amount of his accumulated contributions plus interest of four per centum (4%) from the date or date of payment and shall not be entitled to any pension under this subsection.

(1-6) Any judge covered by Plan B provided for in this subsection who resigns, for reasons other than disability, prior to reaching sixty years of age, shall be entitled to allow his contributions to remain in the pension system and shall at sixty years of age be entitled to a pension as provided in this subsection; or shall be entitled to withdraw his accumulated contributions plus interest of four per centum (4%) calculated from the date or dates of payment and shall forfeit any pension rights under the provisions of this subsection.

(1-7) In no event shall any judge make the contributions provided for in this subsection for more than sixteen years.

(1-8) Any former judge who accepts any salaried public office or position, municipal, county, State or federal shall not be paid any pension or salary so long as he remains in any such office or position.

(1-9) No pension shall be payable hereunder to any retired judge of the Municipal Court of Baltimore City who is receiving another pension under the employees' retirement system of the City of Baltimore or the Employees' Retirement System of the State of Maryland.

(1-10) The mayor and city council of Baltimore City are hereby expressly authorized to levy for such pensions or salaries, or their proportionate share thereof as the case may be, and pay such pensions or salaries to former judges of the Municipal Court of Baltimore City.

(2) Provided, however, that any such judge who voluntarily retires from active service after reaching the age of 60 years and before reaching the age of 70 years, and has resumed the practice of law, shall not be entitled to the increases in pension provided by this section but shall be paid a pension at the rate provided before the passage of this section. A judge who retires and accepts the pension provided by this section shall not during the period of such acceptance engage in the practice of law. A judge who has been receiving the benefits provided by this section and who decides to engage in the practice of law may notify the Governor and Comptroller of the treasury of such fact, and on the indicated date of his engaging in the practice of law his benefits under this section shall cease and no longer be paid; and such a judge shall never again be paid such benefits. In the event that a retired judge who has never been paid benefits under this section and who has been engaged in the practice of law should thereafter relinquish such practice and notify the Governor and Comptroller of the treasury of such fact, then from and after the date of such notification, the judge shall be entitled to all the benefits provided by this section. An elected judge who because of incapacitating illness is required to resign his position prior to reaching his 60th birthday shall be entitled to benefits under the provisions of this section, but in no event in a sum greater than was provided in this section at the time he resigned; and except for a judge who has resigned or who resigns because of incapacitating illness, no other judge who has resigned or who resigns prior to
