

3.404—Permits and Inspection

A SCHEDULE OF FEES for the issuance of permits for plumbing work shall be prescribed and published by the ~~Chief, Bureau of Licenses, Inspections and Permits, or by~~ the appropriate rule or regulation of the Director of Public Works. The Chief, Bureau of Inspections, Licenses, and Permits, shall cause all plumbing work to be inspected BY THE PLUMBING INSPECTION DIVISION, for compliance with the Plumbing Code, except, that, upon his determination in writing with reasons, he may accept, in lieu of inspection a certificate in due form of law from a duly qualified and registered PROFESSIONAL MECHANICAL engineer that plumbing work performed under the personal supervision and control of the said engineer has been installed and conducted in accordance with all provisions of the Plumbing Code. Such determination to accept an engineer's certificate in lieu of inspection shall not preclude the Chief, Bureau of Inspections, Licenses and Permits, from also causing inspections to be made of the said work at any stage thereof by the Plumbing Inspection Division.

3.405—Bond

Each person engaging in the plumbing business in Howard County shall be licensed as set forth hereinafter and shall execute and deliver to the Director of Public Works a good and sufficient bond, in such form and with such surety or sureties as the Director ~~WILL ADVISE, AS SET FORTH OF THE PLUMBING CODE ADVISORY COMMITTEE~~ may approve, in the penalty of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00), saving harmless and indemnifying all officials of Howard County, Maryland, a municipal corporation, from any action or cause of action at law or in equity which does, may or could arise from or out of the licensee's failure or neglect to comply with the provisions of the Plumbing Code AND INDEMNIFYING HOWARD COUNTY, MARYLAND, FOR THE LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO ANY COUNTY PROPERTY.

3.406—Licenses

Any person ~~licensed~~ CERTIFIED AS A MASTER PLUMBER by the Maryland State Board of Commissioners of Practical Plumbing shall be entitled to a license in Howard County upon the posting of the bond required by this subtitle and upon the payment of such recordation fee therefor as the Director may in his rules and regulations provide and the Council may by its Resolution approve.
