

Approved May 7, 1973.

-----

No. 21

(House Joint Resolution 67)

House Joint Resolution ~~[[directing]]~~ requesting the State Department of Education to prepare and implement ~~[[mandatory high school courses]]~~ curriculum materials on the forms and functions of local, county, and State governmental units.

WHEREAS, The citizens of Maryland now participate in the political process at a younger age than ever before; and

WHEREAS, It is as much an obligation of this State to properly prepare, inform, and educate our younger voters as it is their obligation as voters to become prepared, informed, and educated; and

WHEREAS, Maryland schools do not adequately teach the fundamentals of our government bodies, especially local and county governmental units; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the State Department of Education is ~~[[directed]]~~ requested to prepare and implement ~~[[mandatory courses]]~~ curriculum materials in local, county and State government, form and function, to be taught in ~~[[ all high]]~~ public secondary schools in this State; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be sent to the Governor and the State Superintendent of Schools, Dr. James Sensenbaugh, Maryland State Department of Education, P. O. Box 8717, Friendship International Airport, Baltimore, Maryland 21240.

Approved May 7, 1973.

-----

No. 22

(House Joint Resolution 77)

House Joint Resolution requesting the Department of Personnel and the Division of Correction to recommend suggestions with respect to the transfer to other positions within the Division of Correction or State employment in general of correctional officers who have become physically or psychologically incapable of performing their duties.

WHEREAS, The Committee on Constitutional and Administrative Law after the 1972 Session of the General Assembly undertook a thorough examination of the correctional system in the State; and

WHEREAS, One of the major areas with which the Committee became involved was that of correctional officers and the desirability of maintaining an efficient and high caliber correctional officer staff; and