CHAPTER 218

(Senate Bill 300)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 36(1)(c) of Article 101 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume and 1972 Supplement), title "Workmen's Compensation," subtitle "Claims and Compensation; Benefits," to make the provisions of the section relating to payment of compensation to wives upon the death of an employee applicable to a spouse of either sex.

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That Section 36(1)(c) of Article 101 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume and 1972 Supplement), title "Workmen's Compensation," subtitle "Claims and Compensation; Benefits," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

36(1).

(c) The compensation for the foregoing specific injury shall be paid in addition to, and consecutively with, the compensation hereinafter provided in subsection (2) of this section. If any employee dies from any cause or causes not compensable under this article, the right to any compensation payable under this subsection, unpaid at the date of his death, shall survive to his surviving dependents as the Commission may determine, if there be such surviving dependents, and if there be none such, then to his OR HER [wife] SPOUSE and children under twenty-one years of age if there was, at the time of his death, a legal obligation on the part of said employee to support his OR HER [wifel] SPOUSE, and if there was no such obligation, then to his children under twenty-one, if any, alone.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1973.
