

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY

possession of, remove, tow away, impound or otherwise remove any debris, material, vehicle or other object which interferes with or obstructs previously established and marked fire lanes for the access or operation of any Fire Department equipment or other emergency vehicles or equipment.

Section 18-202

Wherever ~~[[a licensed]]~~ AN unattended motor vehicle may be found in violation of the provisions of this Subtitle, a rebuttable presumption shall arise that the registered owner, as disclosed by the records of the State Motor Vehicle Administration, is responsible for the violation.

Section 18-203

In all cases involving parking violations in the way of fire lanes established and marked pursuant to County ordinance, the police officer who discovers a vehicle illegally parked shall, if the operator is absent, attach a summons to the vehicle in a conspicuous place, or if the operator be present, deliver such summons to him. A copy of the summons shall be retained by the officer and shall bear certification under penalty of perjury by the officer attesting to the truth of the matter therein set forth. The recipient of such a summons may waive a hearing before the court at least five (5) days prior to the date of hearing set out in the summons. If the person so summoned desires a hearing, he shall notify the clerk of the court of such desire at least five (5) days prior to the date of hearing as set forth in the summons. At the time that such notice of a desire for a hearing is given, the person summoned shall also notify the clerk of the court that he desires the presence of the officer who issued the summons at the time of the hearing. In the event that the person so summoned does not notify the clerk that he desires the presence of the officer at the time of the hearing as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary that the officer who issued the summons appear, and the copy of the summons bearing the certification by the officer shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein set forth. The police chief shall cause notice of the provisions of this section to be printed clearly and in a conspicuous place in all summons for parking violations used. No summons shall be issued setting a trial date less than fifteen (15) days from the date of offense.

Section 18-204

Any person who shall give his written promise to appear in court to answer to a charge of a violation of
