

the definition of "person" in §1-101 of this article would include these terms.

In subsections (d) (1) and (d) (2) of this section, the phrase "and the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with... rules of court" is deleted as unnecessary, since in any event, the rule of procedure and rules of court would apply.

The only other changes are in style.

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE:

In revising this title, the Commission to Revise the Annotated Code concluded that the second paragraph of present Art. 23, §48 is unnecessary in light of the provisions of §10-101 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article governing the admissibility of business records. Accordingly, that paragraph is proposed for repeal. The provisions of the first paragraph of Art. 23, relating to bylaws in general, now appear in §2-109 of this article.

The Commission concluded that the provisions of Art. 23, §130(b) and (c) relating to the disposition of fees collected by the Department of Assessments and Taxation should be retained in Article 23 for eventual transfer to either the State and Local Government Article or the Taxation and Revenue Article. In this regard, see revisor's note to §1-203 of this title.
