

included. This definition is in no way intended to change the present law, merely to clarify it.

(F) WAREHOUSEMAN.

"WAREHOUSEMAN" MEANS A PERSON ENGAGED IN THE BUSINESS OF STORING GOODS FOR HIRE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This definition is new language added for purposes of clarity and conformity. It repeats without substantive change the definition of "warehouseman" contained in §7-102 of this article for purposes of Title 7 of this article, which title was derived in part from the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act. Since the provisions of present Art. 14A (now Subtitle 3 of this title) were once a part of that Act, use of the term in Art. 14A would appear to have been intended to have the meaning stated in §7-102. See Official Comment to §7-102.

(G) WAREHOUSE RECEIPT.

"WAREHOUSE RECEIPT" MEANS A RECEIPT ISSUED BY A PERSON ENGAGED IN THE BUSINESS OF STORING GOODS FOR HIRE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This definition is new language added for purposes of clarity and conformity. It repeats with no changes the definition of "warehouse receipt" contained in §1-201(45) of this article, which definition, in turn, was derived from the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act. Since the provisions of present Art. 14A (now Subtitle 3 of this title) were once a part of that Act, use of the term in Art. 14A would appear to have been intended to have the meaning stated in §1-201(45). See Official Comment to §§ 1-201 and 7-102.

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE

For non-criminal provisions generally related to bills of lading and warehouse receipts, see Subtitle 7 of this article, "Maryland Uniform Commercial Code - Documents of Title."

SUBTITLE 2. BILLS OF LADING.

18-201. ISSUANCE OF BILL OF LADING FOR GOODS NOT RECEIVED.

(A) A PERSON OR HIS AGENT OR OFFICER MAY NOT ISSUE
