

(3)

Eighty Three degrees north six perches and half westerly three perches to a Locust tree thence west fifty degrees north six perches then west thirty four degrees north three perches to a Chestnut Stump then South then South Seventy degrees westerly twenty perches to a Small Red oak then by the same course nineteen perches and the quarters to another Red oak then north thirty degrees westerly ^{twenty perches} to a Hickory tree then the same course perches to a Hickory thence north twenty degrees easterly thirty perches to a poplar standing by the Run then down the Run to the first bounds by Estimation ten acres being late in the possession of Thomas Synnott lately Dec. and now in the possession and property of John Dash of the hundred and County aforesaid being valued by Estimation according to the best of our skill and knowledge to the sum of six hundred pounds of Tobacco over and above the annuall Rent of fifteen pence per Acre to be paid by the occupant of the said Land to John Dash his heirs and assigns the Land lying on the Southeast of the Run or also ten acres of Land on the other Side of the said Run beginning by the Run side opposite to the first bound of the ten acres aforesaid thence Running from the Run north forty one degrees easterly thirty two perches to a bounded white oak thence Northwest forty three perches to a bounded Hickory thence South forty one degrees westerly forty one perches to a bounded white oak by the Run aforesaid thence down the Run to the first bound aforesaid containing by Estimation ten acres being Land in possession and property of of John Hopewell late Dec. and now valued by Estimation to the best of our knowledge to the sum of three hundred pounds of Tobacco over and above the annuall Rent of six pence per Acre to be paid by the occupant of the said Land to the said Hopewell his heirs and assigns the first ten acres being part of the same manner and the other ten acres hold individually under the right hon^{ble}

Charles