Article - Courts and Judicial Proceedings

3-602.

(a) A court of equity has jurisdiction over the custody, guardianship, legitimation, maintenance, visitation and support of a child. In exercising its jurisdiction, the court may:

(2) Determine the legitimacy of a child, pursuant to [§ 1-208 of Article 93] § 1-208 OF THE ESTATES AND TRUSTS ARTICLE of this Code.

3-829.

(b) A judgment rendered under this section may not exceed

(2) As to property damaged, the lesser of the amount of damage or [$1,000] $1,000.

(e) The court may order the child who, wilfully or maliciously, steals, damages, or destroys the property of another or inflicts personal injury on another to make the restitution expenses himself if that is feasible considering the age and circumstances of the child; and [it] IF this is ordered, the liability of the child precedes the liability of the parent. The court may, in the alternative, enter a judgment or restitution against the child.

3-810.

(i) If the complaint does not allege the commission of a delinquent act, the complainant may, within 15 days of the denial, submit the complaint for review by the regional supervisor of the intake officer. The supervisor shall promptly review the complaint. If, within 15 days, he concludes that the court has jurisdiction and that judicial action is IN the best interests of the public and the child, he may authorize the filing of a petition in writing.

3-825.

(a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and [(d)] (C), an order vesting legal custody in an individual, agency, or institution is effective for an indeterminate period of time.

4-301.

Except as provided in § 4-302, the District Court has exclusive original jurisdiction in a criminal case in which a person at least 16 years old or a corporation is
