CHAPTER 362

(Senate Bill 555)

AN ACT concerning

Legislative Council - Abolishment

FOR the purpose of abolishing the Maryland Legislative Council; establishing the Legislative Policy Committee to coordinate and supervise the work of the legislature during the interim between sessions; providing for the membership, functions, and duties of the Legislative Policy Committee; giving the Legislative Policy Committee the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of documents; giving the standing committees of the legislature the power to issue subpoenas when the General Assembly is not in session, subject to the prior approval of the Legislative Policy Committee; conferring certain powers and responsibilities under this Act to the Governor and to certain other officials and agencies of the State government; providing that the State Department of Legislative Reference and the State Department of Fiscal Services are to make available their respective staffs, services and facilities for assistance to and the preparation of legal and fiscal reports for the standing committees of the General Assembly, statutory committees, and special committees appointed by the Legislative Policy Committee; authorizing the standing committees as set forth in the rules of each House to operate on a year-round basis; and generally relating to the abolishment of the Legislative Council, the establishment of the Legislative Policy Committee, and the operation of the standing committees of the General Assembly.
