Article 41 - Governor - Executive and Administrative Departments

15E.

(g) Any violation of the provisions of this subtitle or OF any orders, rules, or regulations promulgated hereunder shall be punishable as a misdemeanor and shall subject the offender to a fine of not more than $1,000 or not more than six months incarceration, or both, upon conviction thereof. Violations specifically enumerated in [Article 66 1/2] THE MARYLAND VEHICLE LAW for which a penalty is provided are not subject to the penalties of this subsection.

64.

Each person appointed under this subtitle as a special policeman is charged with the protection and preservation of peace and good order on the property described in the application for the commission. He has the power to arrest persons who trespass or commit offenses thereon. He has, and may exercise, the powers of a police officer upon the property described in the application for the commission and may exercise these powers in any county or city of the State in connection with the care, custody, and protection of other property of the requesting authority or other property, real or personal, for which it has assumed an obligation to maintain or protect. In order to facilitate the orderly ingress and egress of traffic to and from the property described in the application, he has authority to direct and control traffic on public highways and roads adjacent to and in the immediate vicinity of the property described in the application when this activity is approved in advance by the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police; however, only a special policeman with a probationary or permanent appointment as a security officer or a member of any industrial police force who holds a special police commission, and has completed the basic training course for police officers as established by the Police Training Commission, pursuant to § 70A of this article may make arrests or issue traffic citations for violations of any of the provisions of [Article 66 1/2 of this Code] THE MARYLAND VEHICLE LAW or any other State or local traffic laws or regulations. He may exercise this power only upon the property of his employer as described in the application for the commission unless he is in active pursuit of an individual for the purpose of immediate apprehension. He is responsible for any abuse of his powers or the exercise of them on property not within his jurisdiction.
