

or related institutions, or to laboratories or other areas in which a higher temperature is necessary to the maintenance of heat sensitive equipment or processes.

(b) In the event of a conflict between the provisions of paragraph 1(a) and the requirements of a curtailment plan adopted by a utility pursuant to curtailment policies adopted by the Federal Power Commission and the Maryland Public Service Commission, the latter requirements shall apply.

[2. The limitation of 73,280 pounds on the gross weight of vehicles or combinations with five axles, provided for in Article 66 1/2, § 14-109(b) of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended or replaced from time to time, is suspended with respect to tankers transporting petroleum products; and a limitation of 80,000 pounds gross weight or the transporting of not more than 8,000 gallons of petroleum products, whichever is heavier, is substituted therefor with respect to such tankers transporting petroleum products. The statutory limitation of 73,280 pounds shall remain in effect for all other vehicles in the class to which that limitation applies.

3. All lighting used for decorative or advertising purposes, and all lighting not essential for public safety on parking lots or along roads and highways subject to the jurisdiction of the State or local government shall be extinguished. The determination of which lighting along such roads and highways is not essential for public safety shall be made by the State Highway Administration with respect to roads and highways subject to State jurisdiction, and by the local government with respect to roads and highways subject to its jurisdiction.

4. The Public Service Commission shall authorize utility companies supplying natural gas to suspend the delivery of natural gas not essential for the protection of property to customers failing to comply voluntarily with the natural gas curtailment plan instituted by the utility pursuant to curtailment policies adopted by the Federal Power Commission and the Maryland Public Service Commission, subject to the applicable rules, regulations, and procedures of the Public Service Commission.]

[5.] 2. In accordance with Article 41, § 15B(c-1) of the Annotated Code of Maryland, any person violating this Order shall be subject to a