

system for the temporary period in all subsequent respects as if he had been a State employee during that period.]

[(9)] (8) Notwithstanding any other provision of Article 73B, any member of this retirement system who has previously served in the Department of Legislative Reference or the State Law Department or as secretary [of] TO the Speaker of the House of Delegates or as secretary to the President of the Senate during a session of the General Assembly shall be entitled to receive credit for such service upon payment to this retirement system, in a single payment, the contribution, with interest, which he would have paid on behalf of such service. For the purpose of this subsection "year of service" shall mean a year or any portion thereof.

[(10)] (9) An employee who is a full-time staff member of the Commission to Revise the Annotated Code, or of any successor agency or agencies, is entitled to credit for previous service rendered by him to the State, if he deposits with the retirement system, with interest to date of deposit, the contributions he would have made to the retirement system if he had been a member during the time of previous service; and when this deposit is made he shall be given service credit in the retirement system for the period of previous service, in all respects as if he had been a member of the retirement system during that period.

[(11)] (10) Any person who was in the employ of the Division of Employment Service while the service and its personnel were under the control of the United States employment service shall receive retirement credit in the Employees' Retirement System or the Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Maryland upon payment of his share of contributions for the period of his federal service, together with interest to date of payment.

[(12)] (11) (A) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this article, every employee of the State who is or becomes a member of Employees' Retirement System, who was an employee of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association and who operated any radiologic equipment under the supervision of the Maryland Health Department or its successors shall receive in the Employees' Retirement System service credit for the time spent while operating any radiologic equipment for the Maryland Tuberculosis Association. Upon receiving a claim for the service credit from the employee the board of trustees of the retirement system shall verify the fact of that previous employment, the condition of the termination of the previous employment, and the creditable service to which the member is entitled, compute the amount due from the employee for the service for which credit is claimed, and submit a statement to the employee for that amount, that computation to be based upon the compensation actually received by the employee from the Maryland Tuberculosis Association during the period for which service is to be credited.
