

Attorney General, one or more sets of the Maryland Reports, and copies of the additional reports as issued, one or more sets of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, and copies of the additional acts as issued, and sets of the several codes containing the public general and local laws of Maryland, and supplements thereto as issued, and also from time to time such other law books, or sets thereof, now or hereafter in the State LAW Library, as the Attorney General may desire for his Department, and as, in the judgment of the State LAW Library, are available for that purpose; the title to all of said books to remain in the State of Maryland.

Article 40 - General Assembly

37.

The recommendations of the standing committees, statutory committees, and special committees appointed by the Legislative Policy Committee shall be completed, compiled and made public, together with the reports relating to the recommendations, at least 30 days prior to any session of the General Assembly at which these recommendations are to be submitted. A copy of the recommendations and reports shall be mailed to each member of the General Assembly, to each elective State officer, and to the State LAW Library.

53.

It is the duty of every officer, board, institution and commission of the State, including special or temporary officers, boards and commissions to file with the Department of Legislative Reference two copies of every regular or special report, bulletin, periodical, catalog and other publication issued by him or it, whether the report is in printed or other form, and also to file with the State LAW Library, the Hall of Records, the McKeldin Library of the University of Maryland, the Enoch Pratt Free Library (central branch), an agency of the respective counties designated by their governing bodies, and the department of legislative reference of Baltimore City, at least one copy of the report or other publication.

Article 41 - Governor - Executive and Administrative Departments

106.

The said manual shall be distributed as follows: twenty-five copies bound in cloth to the Maryland State LAW Library; ten copies, two of which shall be bound in cloth, to each of the members of the legislature; one copy to each public or private school or educational institution in the State of Maryland; fifty copies bound in cloth to the State Department of Legislative Reference, for exchange with other states; and the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to