

Tax Enabling Act of the State of Pennsylvania. (P.L. 1257, Acts of 1965, codified as Title 53, §6901, et seq., Pa. Stat. Ann.).

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 28, 1980.

---

CHAPTER 33

AN ACT concerning

Financial Institutions

FOR the purpose of adding a new Article to the Annotated Code of Maryland, to be designated and known as the "Financial Institutions Article", to revise, restate, and recodify the laws of this State relating and pertaining to financial institutions, including banking institutions, credit unions, savings and loan associations, persons making or prohibited from making consumer loans, installment loans, secondary mortgage loans, and sales finance companies, bank service corporations, sellers of money orders and traveler's checks, mortgage bankers and mortgage brokers, and safe-deposit companies and to the Maryland Credit Union Insurance Corporation, Maryland Savings-Share Insurance Corporation, Maryland Industrial Development Financing Authority, Maryland Small Business Development Authority, and Home Financing Program; relating and pertaining to the registration, qualification, and doing business in this State by and other activities of certain foreign entities, generally providing and establishing with respect to various of these and related matters, definitions, exemptions and defenses, procedures, rights and remedies, and civil and criminal penalties, and for the supervisory and regulatory authority of various governmental agencies and units, generally relating to these and all other matters relating to financial institutions; revising and transferring to appropriate articles of the Code certain miscellaneous provisions relating to representations as to attorneys and to certain unlawful real estate activities, subject to uniform penalties; revising and transferring to appropriate articles certain provisions relating to the Governor's authority during emergencies; revising, for purposes of the Code and rules and regulations adopted under it, the laws