

supervision of said physician or health care institution so treating said child shall be immune from civil liability and/or criminal penalty that might result from the failure to obtain the consent from the parent, guardian or custodian for the treatment of the child.

(4) Whenever any child is examined or treated pursuant to [subsection (h)(2) and subsection (h)(3)] PARAGRAPHS (2) AND (3) OF THIS SUBSECTION the local department of health and mental hygiene shall be responsible for the payment of all reasonable physician and/or health care institution charges incurred and the parents or the guardian of the child shall be liable to the local department for such payments.

(a) Any person who without just cause wilfully neglects to provide for the support and maintenance of his or her spouse is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court of the State having criminal jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or imprisonment for not more than three years, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any person charged with a violation of this section may be prosecuted in the jurisdiction where either of the parties resides. The fine may be directed by the court to be paid in whole or in part to the spouse; provided, that before the trial with the consent of the defendant, or after conviction, instead of imposing the punishment hereinbefore provided, or in addition thereto, the court in its discretion, having regard to the circumstances and financial ability of the defendant, may pass an order which is subject to change by it from time to time, as the circumstances may require, directing the defendant to pay a certain sum weekly for the space of three years to the spouse, and to release the defendant from custody on probation for the space of three years upon the defendant entering into a recognizance in such sum as the court shall direct, with or without sureties. Any such order shall constitute a lien on the earnings of the defendant and the employer is required to deduct the amount of the decree as soon as notified by the Probation Department. All such deductions are to be paid directly by the employer to the notifying Probation Department. The condition of the recognizance shall be such that if the defendant personally appears at the court whenever ordered to do so within the three years, and further complies with the terms of the order, or of any subsequent modification thereof, then the recognizance shall be void, otherwise of full force and effect. If the court be satisfied by information and due proof under oath, at any time during the three years, that the defendant has violated the terms of the order, it may forthwith proceed to the trial of the defendant under the original indictment, or sentence the defendant under the original conviction, as the case may be. In the case of forfeiture of a recognizance and enforcement thereof [be] BY execution, the sum recovered may, in the
