CHAPTER 481

(House Bill 1152)

AN ACT concerning

Prince George's County - Juvenile Crime Restitution
PG 305-82

FOR the purpose of establishing a fund in Prince George's County to provide prompt restitution to victims of juvenile crime and to enhance the treatment program for the juvenile by providing an adequate time for repayment to insure that the juvenile personally pays for the loss; creating an administrator and custodian for the fund and delineating their powers; establishing eligibility for an award from the fund and the manner in which claims are to be handled; setting minimum and maximum awards and limitations thereon; providing definitions of terms; authorizing the Prince George's County Council to appropriate moneys to establish and maintain the fund; providing for the reimbursement of the fund by the juvenile and for the juvenile and his parents or guardian to cosign a note; and generally relating to the Juvenile Crime Restitution Fund in Prince George's County.
