

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to twenty-six (26) times [his] THE INDIVIDUAL'S basic weekly benefit amount, and for each week during which benefits are payable in any amount, the claimant shall be entitled to allowances for dependents, which allowances shall not be deducted from [his] THE CLAIMANT'S benefit account.

(2) (i) Except as provided in paragraph (3), with respect to unemployment which occurs during an additional benefit period, any otherwise eligible individual who has exhausted all of the regular benefits to which [he] THE INDIVIDUAL is entitled under paragraph (1), shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of additional benefits not to exceed 13 times [his] THE INDIVIDUAL'S basic weekly benefit amount. For each week during which additional benefits are payable in any amount, the claimant shall be entitled to allowances for dependents, which allowances shall not be deducted from [his] THE CLAIMANT'S total entitlement to additional benefits.

(ii) An additional benefit period begins the third week after an "on" indicator for additional benefits and ends the third week after an "off" indicator for additional benefits. Provided, however, that an additional benefit period may not end before the thirteenth consecutive week of such period and may not begin before the fourteenth week following the end of a prior additional benefit period.

(iii) An additional benefit period may not begin before [September 26, 1982] AUGUST 1, 1982, and may not continue after June 4, 1983. [If the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970 (Public Law 91-373 as amended by Public Law 97-35) is amended to alter to a date after September 26, 1982, the date by which the states are required to implement the new State "on" and "off" indicators for extended benefits specified in Section 2403 of Public Law 97-35, an additional benefit period may not begin before that later date specified in the amendments to the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act.]

(iv) There is an additional benefits "on" indicator for a week if for a period that consists of the week and the 12 immediately preceding weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) equaled or exceeded 120 percent of the average of the rate for the corresponding 13-week period in each of the 2 preceding calendar years and equaled or exceeded 4 percent.

(v) There is an additional benefits "off" indicator for a week if for a period that consists of the week and the 12 immediately preceding weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) was less than 120 percent of the average of the rates for the corresponding 13-week period
