CHAPTER 664

(House Bill 1456)

AN ACT concerning

Health Insurance

FOR the purpose of providing that a person who is covered by a nonprofit health service plan, health insurance, or group or blanket health insurance may not recover benefits in an amount greater than the total charges for a covered service under certain circumstances, providing that nonprofit health service plans, health insurers, and group and blanket health insurers may take reasonable steps to carry out these provisions, and generally relating to the duplication of benefits by nonprofit health service plans, health insurance, and group and blanket health insurance, the Insurance Commissioner may issue certain regulations to provide for the nonduplication and coordination of certain health insurance policies; and generally relating to health insurance.
