

The Honorable Michael E. Busch
 Speaker of the House
 State House
 Annapolis, MD 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, today I have vetoed House Bill 182 – Baltimore City – Special Traffic Enforcement Officers – Jurisdiction and Requirements.

This bill alters the jurisdiction of special traffic enforcement officers of Baltimore City; limits the circumstances under which a special traffic enforcement officer in Baltimore City may exercise specified authority; and requires special traffic enforcement officers in Baltimore City to take an accredited conflict resolution training course.

Senate Bill 240, which was passed by the General Assembly and allowed to go into effect without my signature, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 182.

Very truly yours,
 Robert L. Ehrlich, Jr.
 Governor

House Bill No. 182

AN ACT concerning

Baltimore City – Special Traffic Enforcement Officers – Jurisdiction and Requirements

FOR the purpose of altering the jurisdiction of special traffic enforcement officers of Baltimore City; limiting the circumstances under which a special traffic enforcement officer in Baltimore City may exercise certain authority; requiring special traffic enforcement officers in Baltimore City to take an accredited conflict resolution training course; requiring the Police Commissioner of Baltimore City to keep certain records; and generally relating to the jurisdiction of special traffic enforcement officers of Baltimore City.
