

REPORT.

To the Honorable

the General Assembly of Maryland:

The Trustees of the Cambridge Academy in Dorchester County, beg leave respectfully to report, in conformity with the Act of Assembly, in each case made and provided, that during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-four, there were fifty-three scholars attending the Academy—twenty-three in the Classical Department, under the direction of R. R. Winthrop, Esq., and thirty scholars in the English Department, under the direction of Gardner Bayley, Esq. The provision of the law under which the donation was made, requiring a certain number of Charity scholars to be educated, was grati-
