

Question. On that Sunday evening, did you see any other rebels in Towsontown besides those three?

Answer. Yes.

Question. Did they go up to your father's house?

Answer. No: they did not.

Question. On Monday evening at the time the rebels were there in Towsontown, was your father there?

Answer. He was at our house.

Question. Was he down in the village?

Answer. He came down after us.

Question. Did he go home with you?

Answer. He did not go home with me, but with the other children.

Question. How long was he there with the rebel troops?

Answer. He was not there five (5) minutes.

Question. Had he any conversation with them?

Answer. Not that I know of.

Question. How long had you been home when your father got there?

Answer. Not more than two or three minutes.

Question. You do not know whether he had been among the rebels before he came to speak to you?

Answer. No.

Question. Where were you when he first came to you?

Answer. I think I was up by Mr. Ady's porch.

Question. Is that far from the plank road?

Answer. Not far: about one hundred yards.

Question. From what direction did the rebels come?

Answer. From the Joppa road from the east.

Question. From what direction did your father come when he came up and spoke to you there?

Answer. From towards the plank road.

Question. Was that the same way the rebels came?

Answer. No.

Question. How many rebels were gathered around there when he came up?

Answer. I suppose (90) ninety or a (100) hundred.

Question. Were the young ladies talking with them at the time he came up?

Answer. I think they were.

The examination of this witness was here concluded.

LOUIS BONSAI, called as a witness for the Respondent, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Question. State your name, age, and residence?

Answer. My name is Louis Bonsal; I am 47 years old; I reside at Lauraville, Baltimore county, my place of business is on the corner of Baltimore and Frederick streets.

Question. Were you summoned here by the Contestant, Mr. Ridgely?