

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,

Annapolis, February 7th, 1862.

To the Senate of Maryland:

Gentlemen—I submit for your advice and consent, the following nominations for the offices mentioned below, viz:

For Inspector General of Flour for Baltimore city—William Campbell, of Baltimore.

For Assistant Inspectors of Flour for Baltimore city—James L. Dorsey, of Baltimore; Samuel D. Walker, of Frederick county; John S. Bowles, of Washington county; Thomas Hughey, of Queen Anne's county.

For Chief Inspector of Salted Fish for Baltimore city—Thomas Woolen, of Baltimore.

For Sub-Inspectors for Baltimore city—William Askey, of Baltimore; Daniel Orrell, of Caroline county.

For Inspectors of Tobacco in Baltimore City.

For Warehouse No. 1—James T. Perkins, of Prince George's county.

For Warehouse No. 2—James Turner, of Anne Arundel county.

For Warehouse No. 3—Philemon Griffith, of Montgomery county.

For Warehouse No. 4—William Welsh, of Baltimore city.

For Warehouse No. 5—John Morehead, of Baltimore city.

For Inspectors and Weighers of Hay in Baltimore City.

For the Western Scales—David Ball, of Baltimore city.

For the Eastern Scales—John Slack, of Baltimore county.

For Weighmaster of Live Stock in Baltimore city—Harry D. Gough, of Harford county.

For Inspector General of Grain in the city of Baltimore—James Bond Chaplain, of Baltimore

For Assistant Inspectors of Grain in the city of Baltimore—Henry B. Jones, of Carroll county; Thomas Rowles, of Howard county; Benjamin F. May, of Cecil county; John Frazier, Jr., of Kent county.

For Notaries Public in Baltimore city—Leander Warren, William F. Murdoch, James B. Latimer, Thomas R. Rich, Baltimore