CHAPTER 462

(House Bill 563)

AN ACT concerning

Unattended Children

FOR the purpose of altering certain provisions of law relating to unattended children to provide that a person in the State may not leave a child under a certain age unattended in certain situations except if the person provides a reliable person of at least a certain age to remain with the child; providing a penalty for violation of the provisions; repealing inconsistent provisions; and generally relating to unattended children in this State.
