

[3.] (III) If there is no crosswalk, before entering the intersection; and

[(ii)] (2) Except as provided in [paragraph (2)] SUBSECTIONS (I), (J), AND (K) of this [subsection] SECTION, shall remain stopped until a signal to proceed is shown.

[(2)] (I) Unless a sign prohibiting a turn is in place, vehicular traffic facing a steady red signal, after stopping as required by [paragraph (1)] SUBSECTION (H) of this [subsection] SECTION, cautiously may enter the intersection and make a right turn.

(J) If a sign permitting any other turn is in place, vehicular traffic facing a steady red signal, after stopping as required by [paragraph (1)] SUBSECTION (H) of this [subsection] SECTION, cautiously may enter the intersection and make the turn indicated by the sign.

(K) In each instance, [this] vehicular traffic DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTIONS (I) AND (J) OF THIS SECTION shall yield the right-of-way to any pedestrian lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to any other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

[(3)] (L) Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in § 21-203 of this subtitle, pedestrians facing a steady red signal alone may not enter the roadway.

[(e)] (M) Except for those provisions of this section that by their very nature cannot apply, this section applies to a traffic control signal placed at a location other than an intersection. Each stop required by the signal shall be made at a sign or marking on the pavement indicating where the stop shall be made or, if there is no sign or marking, at the signal.

21-203.

(a) Where special pedestrian control signals showing the words "walk", "don't walk", or "wait" are in place, the signals have the indications provided in this section.

(b) A pedestrian facing a "walk" signal may cross the roadway in the direction of the signal and shall be given the right-of-way by the driver of any vehicle. At an intersection where an exclusive all-pedestrian interval is provided, a pedestrian may cross the roadway in any direction within the intersection.

(c) A pedestrian may not start to cross the roadway in the direction of a "don't walk" [or "wait"] signal.

(D) A PEDESTRIAN MAY NOT START TO CROSS THE ROADWAY IN THE DIRECTION OF A "WAIT SIGNAL".
