

[(c)] (D) As to an overweight vehicle carrying an indivisible load:

(1) If it is the first indivisible load overweight violation by the driver of the vehicle, the vehicle may be allowed to proceed, after a permit to do so is obtained from the State Highway Administration; and

(2) If it is a second or subsequent indivisible load overweight violation by the driver of the vehicle, the vehicle shall return with its load to its place of entry or origin in this State, after a permit to do so is obtained from the State Highway Administration.

[(d)] (E) As to an overweight vehicle carrying perishable products as its only load:

(1) If it is the first perishable load overweight violation during the calendar year by the driver of the vehicle, the vehicle shall be allowed to proceed to its destination; and

(2) If it is a second or subsequent perishable load overweight violation during the calendar year by the driver of the vehicle, the vehicle may not be moved until the excess weight is unloaded.

[(e)] (F) All material or cargo unloaded under this section shall be cared for by the owner or operator of the vehicle at the risk of the owner or operator.
