

(d) In Anne Arundel County, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, no person may be required to open his place of business on Sunday.

(e) (1) An employer who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $500 for each employee involved, or for each offense, whichever is greater.

(2) An employer who compels a nonmanagerial or nonprofessional employee to work on the employee's chosen day of rest in violation of this section shall be liable to the employee for wages at the rate of three times the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked by the employee on his chosen day of rest. The foregoing sentence shall appear in any application for employment.

(3) This section may not be construed to permit any fine or penalty against any supervisory employee or agent who has been caused, directed, or authorized by his employer to violate any provision of this section, in which case the employer shall be subject to the sanctions prescribed by this section.]

-f-534-0.

(a) In Washington County, except as specifically in this section otherwise provided, it is unlawful on Sunday for any wholesale or retail establishment to conduct business for labor or profit in the usual manner and location or to operate its establishment in any manner for the general public. It shall not cause, direct, permit, or authorize any employee or agent to engage in or conduct business on its behalf on Sunday.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, the operation of any of the following types of retail establishments is allowed on Sunday:

1. Drugstores whose principal business is the sale of drugs and related items.
2. Delicatessens whose principal business is the sale of delicatessens and related food items.
3. Bakeries and bakeshops.
4. Gasoline stations whose principal business is the sale of gasoline, oil, and other automobile maintenance items.
5. Restaurants, ice cream parlors, snack bars and grills.
6. Antique shops.
