

(A) The publisher of the Code of Public General Laws shall:

(1) codify each executive order that is issued in statutory form under Article II, § 24 of the Maryland Constitution, as statutes are codified; and

(2) as to other executive orders that are required to be published:

(i) to the extent possible, arrange each of these executive orders by the article of the Code to which the executive order relates; and

(ii) publish these executive orders in a volume or other separate part of the Code, as the Maryland Rules are published.

[(c)] (B) (1) The publisher is not required to publish:

(i) a proclamation as to a state of emergency or any other executive order under Article 41, § 2-101 of the Code; or

(ii) any executive order that has been rescinded or has expired.

(2) The Director of the Department of Legislative Reference shall establish a procedure to remove from the Code an executive order that has been rescinded or has expired.
