

SECTION 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the continuity of every department, board, commission, committee, agency, or other unit affected by this Act is retained. The personnel, records, files, furniture, fixtures, and other properties and all appropriations, credits, assets, liabilities, and obligations of each retained unit are continued as the personnel, records, files, furniture, fixtures, properties, appropriations, credits, assets, liabilities, and obligations of the unit under the laws enacted by this Act.

SECTION 7. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Act, any person licensed, registered, or certified by any unit established or continued by any statute amended, repealed, or transferred by this Act is considered for all purposes to be licensed, registered, or certified by the appropriate unit continued under this Act for the duration of the term for which the license, registration, or certification was issued, and may renew that authorization in accordance with the appropriate renewal provisions of this Act. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Act, a person who was originally licensed, registered, or certified under a provision of law that has been deleted by this Act as obsolete, continues to meet the requirements to the same extent as if that provision had not been deleted.

SECTION 8. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act does not affect the validity of a bond, note, certificate, or other obligation, of any kind, issued or authorized to be issued by the State or of any of its units or by any county, public corporation, municipal corporation, special taxing district, special authority, or other political subdivision of the State or any of their units.

SECTION 9. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 1988.

Approved April 12, 1988.
