

WILLIAM DONALD SCHAEFER, Governor

to the State by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, There is a separate program for the disposition of State surplus personal property which is administered by a unit of the Department of General Services; and

WHEREAS, The services provided by the Maryland State Agency for Surplus Property and the State surplus property program are similar; and

WHEREAS, Combining the Maryland State Agency for Surplus Property and the State surplus personal property program into one unit will avoid duplication of resources and is the most cost effective way to distribute federal and State surplus property in Maryland; and

WHEREAS, The structure and composition of the Department of General Services makes it the appropriate agency to fulfill the requirements of surplus personal property disposition in Maryland;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM DONALD SCHAEFER, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, BY VIRTUE OF THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME BY THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF MARYLAND, HEREBY RESCIND EXECUTIVE ORDER DATED DECEMBER 21, 1964 (SURPLUS PROPERTY) AND EXECUTIVE ORDER 01.01.1977.09 AND PROMULGATE THE FOLLOWING EXECUTIVE ORDER:

- A. The Maryland State Agency for Surplus Property, including but not limited to its allocated positions, inventory, working capital reserve, real and personal property and surplus property trust fund, is hereby transferred from the University of Maryland to the Department of General Services.
- B. The Department of General Services shall have all duties, responsibilities, powers, and authorities to carry out the disposition of Federal surplus personal property in Maryland through the Maryland State Agency for Surplus Property in accordance with Public Law 94-519.
- C. The effective date of this Executive Order is July 1, 1987.
