

(i) 90 percent of all Medicare Part A eligible expenses for hospitalization for a period of 365 days not covered by Medicare; and

(ii) The initial annual deductible and 20 percent of the amount of Medicare eligible expenses under Medicare Part B.]

(d) The insurer shall give a copy of the Medicare supplement guide to any person covered under a group health insurance policy when that person reaches the age of eligibility for Medicare. The insurer also shall give the person any of the information required under subsection (c)(2), (3), (4), and (5) of this section that may be applicable to the continuing coverage under the group policy of the person eligible for Medicare.

468G.

(a) When soliciting the sale of a health insurance policy, an insurer or agent may not knowingly offer a Medicare policy supplement to a person not eligible for Medicare.

(b) When soliciting or advertising the sale of a health insurance policy to a person eligible for Medicare, an insurer or agent may not:

(1) Represent or imply that the insurer or agent in any way represents or is working for or is compensated by a federal, State, or local government;

(2) Falsely represent or imply that the insurer or agent is offering insurance approved or recommended by any federal, State, or local government agency to supplement Medicare;

(3) Make use of terms such as Medicare consultant, Medicare advisor, Medicare bureau, or disability insurance consultant in a letter, envelope, reply card or in any other writing, or advertisement, or in any oral representation describing the insurer or the agent or agency;

(4) Make any misrepresentation or incomplete comparison by commission or omission, for the purpose of inducing or attempting to induce the Medicare eligible person to purchase, amend, lapse, surrender, forfeit, change, duplicate, or not renew coverage already in force, or to replace a policy that is only technically at variance with the policy or policies being offered.

(c) Unless the policy conforms to the requirements of § 468C of this subtitle, an insurer or agent may not use the terms "Medicare supplement," "Medigap," or words of similar import in
