

Article 27 - Crimes and Punishments

616 1/2.

(f) The circuit courts for each of the counties of the second and seventh judicial circuits are authorized to prescribe by rule of court the terms and conditions of bail bonds filed in the circuit court for each county respectively. [The] THIS power [granted herein] includes but is not limited to prescribing the qualifications of and fees charged by bondsmen. A bond commissioner may be appointed IN THE SECOND AND SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUITS to administer the rules of court adopted pursuant to this section. Violations of any rule of court promulgated hereunder shall be considered contempt of court and punished as for contempt. In addition to those rules promulgated by the seventh judicial circuit [and pertaining to Prince George's County it is hereby provided that in Prince George's County no] A person [shall] MAY NOT engage IN THE SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT in the business of becoming surety for compensation on bonds in criminal cases until he shall have been approved by such rules as the SEVENTH JUDICIAL Circuit [Court for Prince George's County] may adopt. The [said] bondsmen so approved shall pay a license fee of [one (1)] 1 percent of the gross value of all bonds written in all courts of the [county] CIRCUIT, PROVIDED THAT THIS FEE IS APPROVED BY THE COURT OF THE COUNTY IN WHICH IT APPLIES. The fee shall be paid to the court as prescribed by the rules of court. The [said] fee shall be used for the payment of any expenses incident to the administration of this section. Any absolute bond forfeitures collected may be used to defray the above expenses.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1989.

Approved May 25, 1989.
