F. State executive branch agencies shall, to the maximum extent possible, assist the Infants and Toddlers Program to implement the minimum components of the State Plan as required in P.L. 990457, Part H.

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF NOVEMBER 14, 1988

01.01.1988.16

CHESAPEAKE BAY COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATING OFFICE

WHEREAS, The 1987 Chesapeake Bay Agreement which was entered into by Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, the District of Columbia, and the Environmental Protection Agency of the federal government requires each jurisdiction to conduct an ongoing public information and public awareness campaign to restore the Chesapeake Bay to its pristine state;

WHEREAS, The Governor's Office and the Departments of Agriculture, Environment, and Natural Resources play a vital role in this effort; and

WHEREAS, A central coordinating office is needed to organize and coordinate the work of these Departments in developing and implementing the long term public information and public awareness strategies which are called for by the 1987 Chesapeake Bay Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM DONALD SCHAEFER, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, BY VIRTUE OF THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME BY THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF MARYLAND, HEREBY PROCLAIM THE FOLLOWING ORDER:

A. There is a Chesapeake Bay Communications Coordinating Office within the Executive Department.

B. The Office shall be responsible for:

(1) Coordinating State communication plans as outlined in the Maryland Chesapeake Bay Communication Plan;
