

In subsection (b)(1) of this section, the reference to a violation of "a condition of" mandatory supervision is added to state expressly that which was only implied in the former reference to a violation of "mandatory supervision".

In subsection (b)(3) of this section, the reference to a violation "of a condition of mandatory supervision" is added to state expressly that which was only implied in the former reference to a "violation".

The Correctional Services Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that there is a reference to a "crime of violence as defined in Article 27, § 643B of the Code" in the introductory language of subsection (b) of this section. This reference is narrower in scope than the references to a "violent crime" in other provisions of this title. The term "violent crime" is defined in § 7-101 of this article to mean "a crime of violence as defined in Article 27, § 643B of the Code" or "burglary in the first, second, or third degree". The General Assembly may wish to substitute the defined term "violent crime" for the reference to "a crime of violence as defined in Article 27, § 643B of the Code" in the introductory language of subsection (b) of this section.

The Correctional Services Article Review Committee also notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that the meaning of the reference to a "request for notification under § 7-801(b)(1)(ii) of this title" in the introductory language of subsection (b) of this section is unclear. The Committee is uncertain as to whether this means a generic "request for notification", a specific "request for notification of a parole hearing", or a specific "request for notification of a violation of mandatory supervision". The General Assembly may wish to clarify this issue. For a more detailed discussion of this issue, see § 7-801(b)(1)(ii) of this title and accompanying Revisor's Note.
