

(ii) may prohibit the defendant from operating a motor vehicle unless the motor vehicle is equipped with an ignition interlock system under § 27-107 of the Transportation Article.

(2) When the crime for which the judgment is being stayed is for a violation of any provision of Article 27, §§ 276 through 303 of the Code, the court shall impose a period of probation and, as a condition of probation, require the defendant to participate in a drug treatment or education program approved by the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, unless the court finds and states on the record that the interests of the defendant and the public do not require the imposition of this condition.

[(c)] (D) Notwithstanding subsections [(a)] (B) and [(b)] (C) of this section, a court may not stay the entering of judgment and place a defendant on probation for:

(1) a violation of § 21-902 of the Transportation Article, if within the preceding 5 years the defendant has been convicted under or has been placed on probation under that section after being charged with a violation of § 21-902 of the Transportation Article;

(2) a second or subsequent controlled dangerous substance crime under Article 27, §§ 276 through 303 of the Code; or

(3) a violation of any of the provisions of Article 27, §§ 462 through 464B of the Code for a crime involving a person under the age of 16 years.

[(d)] (E) (1) By consenting to and receiving a stay of entering of the judgment as provided by subsections [(a)] (B) and [(b)] (C) of this section, the defendant waives the right to appeal at any time from the judgment of guilt.

(2) Before granting a stay, the court shall notify the defendant of the consequences of consenting to and receiving a stay of entry of judgment under paragraph (1) of this subsection.

[(e)] (F) On violation of a condition of probation, the court may enter judgment and proceed as if the defendant had not been placed on probation.

[(f)] (G) (1) On fulfillment of the conditions of probation, the court shall discharge the defendant from probation.

(2) The discharge is a final disposition of the matter.

(3) Discharge of a defendant under this section shall be without judgment of conviction and is not a conviction for the purpose of any disqualification or disability imposed by law because of conviction of a crime.
