

corporate rights of an institution, or to prevent the receiving of minors under such limitations, or for such definite periods as any institution may by its regulations direct or prescribe.]

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is obsolete law that has been superseded by other provisions. The Review Committee, in consultation with the Office of the Attorney General, has determined that it should be repealed.

[238.

It shall not be lawful for any railroad company doing business in this State to withhold any part of the wages of its employees for the benefit of any relief association or the members thereof. Any railroad company violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be fined not less than fifty ($50) dollars, nor more than five hundred ($500) dollars for each and every offense.]

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is obsolete law that has been superseded by provisions of federal law. The Review Committee, in consultation with the Office of the Attorney General, has determined that it should be repealed.

Article 36 - Fees of Officers

[Accounts]

[1.

All accounts for officers' fees shall be made out in a fair and clear manner and in words at length; and whenever any person interested in them, or to whom the same shall be charged shall require a copy of such account, the several officers herein named shall, in as short a time as may be convenient, give him an account of such charges in words at length.]

[2.

No charge for officers' fees shall be paid or allowed by the county commissioners aforesaid in any criminal case where jurisdiction to try, hear and determine the matter charged against the party accused has been conferred by law upon the District Court, but the county commissioners may levy or pay to the officers performing service in such cases such compensation as they in their discretion may deem right and proper. This section shall apply only to the counties of Caroline, Kent, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Prince George's, Charles and Harford.]

[3.

No officer, under the penalty of five hundred dollars, shall send out his fees on execution more than once in every year between the first day of January and the first day of May; but in Baltimore City any officer may send out his fees on execution at any time during the year.]

[4.

If any officer shall, by himself, his deputies, agents, or clerks, charge, receive, ask or demand any larger or greater fees than are allowed by this article, he shall for