CHAPTER 435

(Senate Bill 38)

AN ACT concerning

Family Law - Child Support Enforcement - Earnings Withholding and Medical Support Notices

FOR the purpose of repealing the requirement that the Child Support Enforcement Administration send certain documents to an obligor by certified mail under certain circumstances; requiring the Administration to send certain documents to an obligor at the obligor's place of employment; altering the contents of a certain statement of the obligor's right to contest the accuracy of information provided in a certain earnings withholding notice; repealing the requirement that a certain parent or support enforcement agency send a copy of an order to provide health insurance coverage or a medical support notice to the parent's employer by certified mail under certain circumstances; requiring a certain parent or support enforcement agency to send a copy of an order to provide health insurance coverage or a medical support notice to the parent's employer in a certain manner under certain circumstances; and generally relating to child support enforcement.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article - Family Law

Section 10-124 and 12-102(d)

Annotated Code of Maryland

(1999 Replacement Volume and 2003 Supplement)

BY repealing and reenacting, without amendments,

Article - Family Law

Section 12-102(a), (b), and (c)

Annotated Code of Maryland

(1999 Replacement Volume and 2003 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article - Family Law

10-124.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Part III, the Administration may serve an earnings withholding notice on an employer of an obligor without the need for any modification of the support order or any further action by a tribunal if:
