it Stood by the old Orchard and further Saith not

The Deposition of Joseph Standford Aged thirty nine Years or there abouts and this Deponant Sayeth that when he was a boy he Saw a tree Standing near the head of the Savana branch which had fractions in the bark but whether it was a bounder or not he Could not tell and further Sayeth that his father and Anthony Goldsmith Standing by the old Orchard Anthony Goldsmith pointing up the Savanna to a tree said there was the bounder of Phildarrah's Land and Saith that he was at the trees Smite and it was a Red oak but Doth not Remember that there was any marks in it and further saith Not —

The Deposition of William Hayman aged Sixty Six Years or their abouts and this Deponant sayeth that a black gum was the third bounder of a tract of Land Called Hopewell Standing Northward from the Savanna for his saw it marked and further saith he heard Richard Chambers say that a white oake was the first bounder of Henry Haymans Land and he did not Care if it was within his Land fifty Yards and that it Stood Near the head of the Savanna Branch and that Hayman saw it before and after it was marked and further sayeth that Last October was three Years that he was at Phildarrah Daugherty house in Kent County on Dellaware and that he heard Phildarrah say the first bounder of hopewell Stood near the head of the Savanna branch Leading into Wecomoco and further saith not

The Deposition of Henry Dorman aged Sixty Years or their abouts and this Deponant sayeth that he heard Phildarrah Dougherty tell William Hayman that the first bounder of hopewell was a White oake and it Stood near the head of the Savannah branch and further saith Nott

The Deposition of Thomas Dollett aged fourty Year or there abouts and this Deponant sayeth that he was at Thomas Brereton's house and he heard Mary Brereton say that she heard her father Richard Chambers say that the first bounder of Phildarrah's Land Stud below the house on the branch and further saith Not

The Deposition of James Hayman Aged twenty Nine Year or their abouts and this Deponant saith that his father and his brother Henry Hayman was building a house and he heard his father say pointing with his hamer that his third bounder was a gum Standing by the side of a Swamp and further saith Not

By Vertue of this Commission we the Subscribers being Qualified as the Law Directs gave Notice Accordingly and Examined Such Evidences as Came before us and have taken their Deposition in Writing in Relation to the bounds of the two tracts of Land Within Mentioned and Richard Chambers, Patrick Daley, Thomas Poole and Joseph Standford all Agreeing at a Certain Place Saying that by What Information they had the first bounder of hopewell was thereabouts where we marked a tree as

Witness our hands

Sam: Shawbridge
Wm Turpin