

At S<sup>t</sup> Inegos ffortt 29th decem: 1646.

Liber A
P. 94

In the vpper howse

Gouern<sup>r</sup>: M<sup>r</sup>: Lewger: M<sup>r</sup>: Greene.

The Burgesses being sent for, and all appearing, the Gouerner declared to them that they weare caled hither as ffreemen to treat and advise in assembly touching all matters as freely and boldly wthout any awe or feare and wth the same Liberty as at any assembly they might have don heretofore, and that they weare now ffree from all restraint of their persons and should be ffree during the assembly Saueing only to hymselfe after the end of the Assembly, such charge as he had or hath, against any for any cryme committed since the last generall Pardon:

Sworne Wil: Lewis.
Jo: Iarbo
Rob<sup>t</sup> Sharpe
Iohn Salter.
Wil: Clare
Tho: Kingwell

Testified that the Gouer<sup>r</sup>: afore their comeing vpp out of Virgina declared to all the Souldiers in publicke and to these deponents in particul<sup>r</sup>: (in these words or to this effect that they weare to attend hym vppon these termes, viz: that if he found the Inhabitants of S<sup>t</sup> Maries had accepted his pardon for thier former rebellion and weare in obedience to his Lo<sup>ps</sup> the Souldiers weare to expect no pillage there but he would receave the inhabitants in peace and only take aid from them to the reduceing of Kent.

The howse adiorned till next morning 30th

Decem<sup>br</sup> 30. The howse adiorned till next morning

31. The howse adiorned till 2<sup>d</sup> Jan: morn

Jan: 2<sup>d</sup> The howse adiorned till 1 of March.