

And another bill for the Clk of the Councill fees both past the vpper house also— L. H. Journal Original.

All Ordinary keepers Ordered to bring in their Accompts to morrow morning—

The Bill for naturalizacōn of Rowland Nans Read and past by order of the house And sent againe to the Vpper house by M^r Gibson—

The Bill for the Clk of the Councill fees read the first time—

The Bill for trade with the Indians &c Read the first and second time by especial Order of the house—

Coll

Rela from the Vpper house with this to Townes—

p. 27

Vpper ho vember 8th 1682

Received a message from the Lower house concerning the Amendment of Trade by which they had comitted the said bill the said Comittee—and desired of the members of our house to Consult further the said Act to the perfecting & finishing the said f good reasoning the Lower house to have Voted all those amendm^{ts} mittee—that it be necessary & Convenient That appoynted and that they will tend much and security of the province, and then ments, To all which amendments this house first by their Comittees agreed, and afterwards Vpon reading the bill in this house, soe that the bill is by vote of both houses voted necessary, and that for the hon^r and safety of the province, And shall wee after eight dayes spent Vpon it forget it to be necessary for our defence and lay it a side quite after twice reading in the Lower house because they say it is necessary to be amended in divers perticulars, This house doe say they are as ready to Consent to any amendments now as they were at first, and desire to know Wherein it ought to be amended that they may joyne with the Lower house in the Amendment of a Bill by both houses Voted necessary for the safty and security of of the province, That ought to be our cheifest care and ought not to be left of for the debate of a few more houres now wee spent soe much of the publike money in the prosecucōn to this poynt, and that it is soe farr Advanced— efore this house desire to know wherein the Lower house desire to have the bill for the Advancem^t of trade in th province amended, or else that they